

Here are the most common landscape plants in Lakeway

Texas sage native leucophyllum frutescens

Yucca native several kind

Mountain laurel native

Carolina jasmine non native possible native alternative American Beauty berry

Crepe myrtle non native, alternative Texas redbud, Mountain laurel, Texas sage (shaped into a tree)

Rocks ☺

St Augustine grass native alternative buffalo grass or sedges

Palm Tree some are native

Buford holly non native alternative yaupon holly or dwarf yaupon, Texas Sage

Here are more native alternatives:

Native or native adaptive plants that deer do not like

Autumn sage (actually almost all salvias are deer proof)

Texas lantana lantana urticoides

Yaupon holly (also dwarf holly)

Sage mealy blue- salvia farinacea Henry Duelberg

Mexican bush sage- native adaptive-salvia leucantha

American beauty berry-callicarpa americana

Gregg's mist -conoclinium greggi

Turq's cap-malvaviscus drummondii

Pink skullcap – native adaptive, can sometimes find the native skullcap-scuttellaria suffrutescens

Zexmania -wedelia acapulcensis

Flame Acantha-anisacanthus

Skeleton leaf goldeneye-viguiera stenoloba

Sedges (Texas or Cedar)

Buffalo grass (lawn)

Yellow bells-texoma stans

Milkweed may need to grow yourself as hard to find

Texas redbud-cercis canadensis

Mountain laurel-

All herbs

Rosemary

Mexican mint marigold

Mexican oregano

Basil

Thyme

Ginger

Tumeric

Lemon grass